Robert, Happy New Year to you as well. In response to your question, EPA Region 6 still has the matter of Tulstar potential CERCLA liability at the NCI Site under review. Your client can still consider the general notice of potential CERCLA liability that was sent by EPA on or about May 4, 2009, to be effective. If there is a change in that status, Tulstar will be so advised and I will let you know. Take care.
